

Stop! Do you know that you can save Big Money by reading Every line of the ads in the Review. We guarantee this to you. It's up to you to make good.

THE REVIEW

10 Pages this week, well worth your careful attention. The ads point you to the "Road of Big Values." Follow the sign and arrive safely.

The Review is read and appreciated by that large body of people who buy four-fifths of the goods sold in High Point---the laboring people

Vol. 13, No. 3

High Point, N. C., Thursday, Jan. 13, 1916

10 Pages

Death on Russell Street

Mrs. Riggan died at her home on Russell street Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, from tuberculosis. The funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from South Main street M. E. church. Deceased leaves five children, three of whom are at the Children's Home in Winston and the two grown ones live here. She was a good woman.

City Live Stock Sold

The city sold two horses, two mules, two wagons and four pair of harness at public auction yesterday, $653.90 being realized from the sale. The two mules sold for $200. and they looked like a $900. pair. A low price prevailed all the way through.

Woman's Club Items

Mrs. J. J. Farris, president of club and Mrs. H. A. White, state chairman of Home Economics will attend the council of the state federation in Shelby January 26-28. The next federation meeting will be held in High Point in May. Some 200 delegates, representing the leading women of North Carolina, are expected.

The club is doing valuable work in High Point, lending assistance to any worthy cause when requested, etc.

Barnes-Shields

H. G. Barnes of this city was united in marriage last week to Miss Bertha Shields at the home of the bride at Pinehurst. The couple became acquainted while Mr. Barnes was sojourning at Montrose in search of health a few months ago and courtship rapidly developed into a wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes are located on Ray street.

NOTICE PTEASE

We repeat the notice of the past several weeks to our subscribers, that we are expecting settlement of their accounts. We have waited patiently on you and we feel like each and every one should pay what he is due as this is the beginning of a New Year.

Postoffice Receipts Show Increase

For the year of 1915 the postal receipts of the High Point postoffice totaled $39,588.11. The last quarter of 1915 outdistanced the final period of 1915 by $348.46.

For October, 1914, the figures were: $3,564.69, as against $3,659.70 of October, 1915; November, 1914, was only $3,025.97, while the same month in 1914, was $3,106.15 and for December 1914 the figures were $3,290.29 but the last month of 1915 reached $3,463.56. The total for the final quarter of 1914 was $9,880.95 while for the same time in 1915 the receipts amounted to $10,229.41.

Fines and Costs

Fines and costs totaling $2,207.69 were collected in the Recorder's Court from May 1st 1915 to Jan. 1st 1916, representing 366 cases disposed of. Out of this big amount $432.50 was for fines and the rests for costs.

Negro Becomes Rich

John Burns, colored porter at the Elwood hotel, claims that he has sold his farm of 16 acres near the Cone mills for $45,000--rather he has a note for this amount payable June 1, from a Boston capitalist who contemplates the erection of a silk mill.

About the "Girl and the Game"

Owing to the non-arrival of films for the "Girl and the Game", at the Rose Saturday the first installment as appearing in The Review last week was not shown but will commence this Saturday. For this reason the second installment due this week in The Review will appear next week in order to have the installments appear in our paper the same week as shown at the Rose.

Sam Robinson is the new manager of the Fair.

A MOST INTERESTING MEETING.

Veterans of High Point Camp Hold Monthly Meeting--Social Confab and Delightful Refreshments by the Daughters.

Saturday afternoon the High Point camp of the Confederate Veterans held its regular monthly meeting in its own comfortable headquarters over the Wachovia Bank and Trust company. A large number of veterans were on hand, together with the sponsor, Miss I. Irvin Paylor, and other ladies and the veterans' committee for High Point composed of Messrs. Geo. T. Wood, J. P. Rawley and W. L. Stamey.

Commander Tom Wood made the opening talk, complimenting all those responsible for the very comfortable quarters and for other services rendered and then told in a general way the history of the Confederacy, the part private and officer played and regretted the fact that historians had failed to give proper credit to the cause, and hoped the day would soon come when a true history by a Southern man would be written. He spoke feelingly of his "comrade in arms," and said he hoped it "was well" with each and all, so they could answer the final summons without the least fear.

Geo. T. Wood followed with a very interesting talk as a son of a Confederate veteran and expressing loyalty and devotion to the cause so near his heart. "We trust this is only a small beginning of what we will be able to do for you veterans," said Mr. Wood, and "when the time comes for any of you to pass to the great beyond your committee would like to act as pallbearers in loving remembrance of the services you rendered your southland."

W. L. Stamey was pleased to be in the presence of such brave men who followed the fearless Lee and Jackson and counted it a labor of love to do anything that would add to the pleasure of the veterans, whom he has always held in tenderest regard and expected to come to their headquarters often and mingle with them and in part again live over, as it were, with them the stirring days of the sixties, in their graphic accounts of the same.

Daughters of the Confederacy were present as follows: Sponsor, Miss I. Irvin Paylor; Mesdames A. E. Tate, J. F. Hayden, Bascom Hoskins, H. C. Fields and A. T. Wishart, the latter the daughter of Commander Tom Wood. These ladies served coffee and sandwiches and they were good, too. Cigars were passed, the gift of Geo. A. Matton; Prince Albert smoking tobacco, the gift of R. J. Reynolds & Co.; Stars and Bars chewing tobacco, by Taylor Bros., Winston. The veterans seemed very appreciative and extended a unanimous vote of thanks to the committee and all.

The ladies certainly made the occasion a very enjoyable one, one of the most pleasant affairs in every way the editor ever attended. Miss Paylor, the sponsor, deserves much credit for the work she is doing for the old soldiers and it goes without saying that every one of them have a warm spot in their heart for her. She finds the people anxious to contribute to the comfort of the veterans and she is ever alert to get just the things needed to make them happy.

Recent donations are: Bible, by Pastors' Association; $5.00, by Chairman Boyden, of the State Home for the old soldiers; electric stove, by E. L. Rawley, J. L. Woodson and W. L. Stamey.

NEW SPRING GOODS ARRIVING DAILY.

New muslin underwear. See our special 98c gowns. They are winners. New shirtwaists and middie blouses, in the new spring styles, 50c and 98c. New silk hosiery, in the new spring shades. See them. They are beauties at 50c and $1.00.

New cotton wash fabrics of all kinds to make up early for spring wear. See our big values in long cloth at $1.19 the bolt of 12 yards.

THE MOFFITT FURNISHING CO.

CHECK FORGER IN COURT.

Carl Jones, who forged a check for $11.00 on A. J. Owens, of the Sunnyside Ice and Fuel company Tuesday morning, gave himself up and plead the mercy of the court, and after a promise to care for his wife and quit his old habits and associations, a suspended sentence was allowed by Judge Dalton and Jones let off with the costs.

WITH OUR BANKS.

Walter Hargett was chosen as assistant cashier of the High Point Savings and Trust company at its annual meeting this week.

E. S. Wall was elected assistant cashier of the Commercial National Bank at its annual meeting this week.

Both of the above banks show a healthy growth during the past year.

Col. Wescott Roberson attended a meeting of the directors of the Wachovia Bank and Trust Co. in Winston Tuesday.

THINGS PERSONAL AND OF A GENERAL NATURE

There will be a public installation of officers of Guilford Council No. 23, Jr. O. U. A. M. tomorrow night.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the North State Telephone Co. will be held at 2 o'clock, p. m., Jan. 20th, at Manufacturer's club.

Dr. Dred Peacock is secretary of the chain of McLellan stores formerly called Interstate stores. The firm of Peacock and Dalton will act as counsel for the corporation capitalized at $200,000, which now has a chain of 13 stores, one of which is located here.

J. Elwood Cox gave his annual banquet last night at the Elwood hotel to the officials of the Commercial National Bank and a few invited friends. It was a most pleasant occasion.

The Christian Endeavorers will march on Greensboro Saturday and Sunday of this week when the northwestern district meeting of this association will be held. Mrs. Lewis McFarland, R. C. Boyd and Dr. Sylvester Newlin are High Pointers on the programme.

Wednesday morning a mob took Jno. Richards, colored, from the Goldsboro jail and hung him to a tree. Richards was charged with being implicated in the murder of Anderson Gurley, a respected farmer of Wayne county.

The Superior Court found no error in the case of Ida Ball Warren and Samuel Christy convicted of the murder of Mrs. Warren's husband and unless the Governor intercedes both will be electrocuted.

If you want prompt and satisfactory service in printing, phone 275.

The first installment of the Girl and the Game due for last Saturday will be shown at the Rose this Saturday. See it.

The Review is for preparedness now more so than ever since the editor has seen the wonderful picture, "The Battle Cry of Peace," which teaches a great lesson of preparedness to the United States.

T. J. Gold was a business visitor to Greensboro Monday.

D. H. Parsons was in the Gate City Monday on legal business.

Guilford County's appropriation from the state school fund is $6,299.50 which is for a total of 20,363 school children in the county.

Roger Steffan, editor of the Durham Sun, Monday married Miss Martha Allen of Troy, Ohio at Jacksonville, Fla.

Miss Ida Lawrence, of Humboldt, Tenn., arrived Monday to succeed Miss Vera Idol, as teacher of history in the high school. Miss Lawrence is well equipped by training for the position.

Grand Master Greene of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of N. C. met with the local lodge Tuesday night.

Capt. A. M. Rankin spent Monday in Greensboro on business.

Mrs. Bruce Caraway has returned to Chapel Hill to be with her husband.

The Social Service Dept. of the Woman's Club sold $75.00 worth of Red Cross seals during the holiday.

We specialize in printing--Stamey Printing House, Phone 275.

We call attention to the masterpiece in movie pictures--Geraldine Farrar, in Carmen, at the Broadway today. This is one of the finest pictures ever exhibited in High Point and should be greeted by capacity houses at each performance. See ad elsewhere.

Dr. D. A. Stanton was called to Bell Buckle, Tenn., an account of the illness of his son David, who is in school there and who was suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

Bristowe Pitts succeeds Lester Moffitt at the Mann Drug Co., Mr. Moffitt returning to his home in Asheboro.

Tomorrow evening at the North Main street M. P. church Rev. C. E. Wilbur, editor of the M. P. Sunday school literature, will talk on the subject of "American wit and Humor".

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Gilliam have returned to High Point after two months absence due to the illness of Mr. Gilliam at Mt. Airy.

J. Elwood Cox returned last week from his southern home in Florida. Mrs. Cox and Miss Clara will remain away until Spring.

Miss Juanita Hammer spent a day or so at Elon College last week.

WANT TO WIN $5.00

Last week we announced a prize of $5.00 to the merchant or other business man who would give the best reason why the people in the outlying districts should make High Point a trading center. This means much to the merchants and co-operation is requested in order to get the best results. You have your reason and a good slogan with it why every one more accessible to High Point should trade in High Point and thus form a community of interest--let's have it. A few have responded so far, why not you? The letter must not contain over 500 words and reach the office on or before Feb. 25th.

Let us hear from you today?

Dr. Guy F. Duncan, one of High Point's most estimable citizens and physicians, has been indisposed this past week.

We are glad to know that the banks did a good business with their Christmas Savings accounts which means that the merchants and other interests will feel the increased trade next Christmas.

In addition to the Elk's Home is proceeding rapidly. Several more rooms have been added which are in demand at this cozy, home like building.

The old soldiers, God bless them, for all they have done for us.

Ed Mungo has been subbing for Officer Carrol while visiting in Stokes county.

Manager A. M. Hardie of the Kiss Kola Co. says the sales for his new drinks has far exceeded all expectations.

Henry Ford is being talked of for the presidency and this name will appear on the Republican presidential primary ballot in Michigan this Spring. This is a good starter!

Mrs. Thos. J. Gould entertained "Over the Tea Cups" at her home in Oakwood court last week.

Dr. H. W. McCain was elected a member of the Board of Censors for three years and Dr. J. T. Burrus a delegate to the State medical society at a recent meeting of the Guilford county medical association.

Dr. A. A. Mendez who married Miss Blanche Bradshaw had the degree of Doctor of Medicine conferred upon him by the Havana (Cuba) University in recognition of his services in that tropical country.

Tom Wagner, clerk at the Ford hotel, Salisbury, dropped in to see the editor this week and incidentally to move his subscription well up into 1916. Tom has been on the sick list and is taking a rest for a few days, visiting relatives here and on Route 1, Lexington. Always glad to see friend Wagner who has many friends here.

Dr. A. M. Stanton returned Monday from Bell Buckle, Tenn., bringing his son, David with him, who is suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

Jno. W. Walker returned Monday from a business trip to South Carolina.

Died, Sunday night, J. Lawson, at his home on Ward street. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. P. W. Willard and interment occurred at Mechanicsville. Deceased was 56 years of age and is survived by a widow and several children.

It is learned that Mr. Fox, of Washington, who owns the E. D. Steele farm, will improve same at an early date.

Manager Wagner, of the Broadway, is having a big run on his Paramount features.

With Our Advertisers

The Artic Ice and Coal Co. and the High Point Bottling Co., return thanks for the big business the past year, tells you of their growth year by year, and anticipates a big increase this year thru the support of its patrons. A pretty New Year thought is expressed in verse and Manager Joe Lee can be counted on at all times to give a square deal or return your money--a fair proposition.

The Home Banking Co. tells you that its savings club will be open till January 15. See ad., also the excellent statement of this bank.

D. F. Staley, the jeweler, announces a radical reduction in prices.

Leonard-Beavans-Stamey Co. has some excellent suit values.

Moffitt Furnishing Co. announces many new things for spring in an ad. today.

Allen's department store announces sweeping reductions in suits, coats and dresses.

Kiss-Kola, the famous soft drink. See ad.

Dr. A. C. Jones was in Raleigh this week attending a meeting of the Southern Veterinary Association.

REGISTRATION FOR HUMANE SOCIETY.

Commencing this week registration booths are open at Wood's dry goods store, on South Main street, and Matton Drug Co., on North Main street, for members to the Humane Society of High Point and all good citizens are asked to join and by their influence help a good cause--one of humanity--friends of dumb animals who do not get the treatment they deserve every time. Already much good work has been accomplished and greater results will be obtained when more people unite in the cause. Mrs. R. C. Soyars deserves much credit for starting the society here and for the prosecution of the work so far.

COUNTY MATTERS

The board passed an order for the widening of certain of the public roads leading out of Greensboro to a uniform width of 50 feet, to be laid out 25 feet from the center of these highways as now established. Seven feet on either side will be reserved for the purpose of sidewalks if they should ever be needed.

The order applies to the following roads: Asheboro street extended, from the city limits to the forks near Buffalo school house; the Greensboro High Point road for the entire distance, and the Greensboro-Winston-Salem road from the Masonic home to Guilford station.

S. J. Scott was re-elected superintendent of the county home for the ensuing year.

The monthly report of Dr. W. M. Jones, the county health officer, contained the following statistics:

Disinfections, 14; examinations for court, 4; insane examined, 4; charity calls, 11; post mortems, 1; nuisances examined, 2.

Infections reported during the past month were as follows: Scarlet fever, 11; diphtheria, 7; smallpox, 2; whooping cough, 4.

"County home--Here one white woman who has been in the insane ward has been sent to Morganton. One negro woman who has been confined in the jail has been sent to the home. Six visits here have been made during the month.

"Jail--Here we have several who are sick. All are old, chronic cases. One white man in jail insane and one negro said to be insane.

"Camps--Here there has been about the ordinary amount of work and calls.

BANK MAKES GOOD SHOWING.

At the annual meeting of the Home Banking Co. this week, a dividend of 6 per cent. was declared and a nice fund carried to the surplus account. Cashier Crowson's report showed a wonderful growth, about 50 per cent. increase in deposits, many new accounts and a healthy growth otherwise with bright prospects for this year. The stockholders were pleased with the showing. The old board of directors and other officers were re-elected.

K. OF P. OFFICERS.

The new officers of High Point lodge No. 39, K. of P., are as follows: Chancellor commander, A. E. Teeter; vice-chancellor, W. W. Jones; prelate, George T. Wood; master of finance, John W. Walker; master of exchequer, Geo. A. Matton; keeper of records and seal, W. L. Stamey; master at arms, A. H. Holton.

Getting Orders from England be 13.

1916
FOXLEAS PARK, LYNDHURST, HANTS
Some Dress Co England
Mr Father gave me some furs if you come please last winter which was fine but you hardly used the 6 furs worth for value as some as possible as we are finally in need of it
I enclose check for $4 which leaves 1 for forwarding. Please send it off to me as soon as possible Mrs. B. B. Saunders